

ISLP International Senior Lawyers Project

Innovative approaches to complex development related challenges.

ISLP Newsletter January 2020

In January, the ISLP Media Law Working Group was featured in the ABA's Experience Magazine. Meanwhile, ISLP's UK team gathered with civil society activists and donors to discuss future collaborative efforts to achieve policy and legislative reform in the areas of corruption and tax.

Have you volunteered with us? If you haven't and you'd like to, please get in touch. We love to hear from our network! Go to our website www.islp.org for more information.

Media Law Working Group Update

Spotlight on Media Law Volunteers in Experience Magazine

ISLP co-founder and head of the Media Law Working Group, Richard Winfield, wrote an article that was published in the January/February 2020 issue of Experience Magazine. The article details the important pro bono work that ISLP's Media Law volunteers do abroad. ISLP thanks all volunteers for their contributions to protecting freedom of expression.

Read more

ISLP Attends the Joffe Retreat

Program directors, Eva and Jason, attended a stimulating two-day retreat in Missenden Abbey with anti-corruption and tax reform civil society activists and donors including Joffe Charitable Trust, Luminate, Open Society Foundations, NSC, and the Potter Family Trust.

The purpose of this gathering was to strategize on how to best collaborate to achieve policy and legislative reforms in the aforementioned areas.

ISLP's Reading Recommendations

- "The Mafia Capitale Trials Show Italian Municipalities' Continued Vulnerability to Corruption by Organized Criminal Groups"

For all of our latest news please use the social media buttons below to find out more on Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter and our Website.

Copyright © ISLP 2018, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

info@islp.org

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.